

Université
de Limoges

INSPE – Institut National Supérieur du Professorat et de l'Education

The National Institute of Teaching and Education (INSPÉ) of the Limoges Academy is authorized to issue the master's degree in Teaching, Education and Training (MEEF) for the First and Second degree mentions. degree, Educational framework and Training practices and engineering. This professional diploma, accessible in initial, permanent and continuous training, corresponds to the delivery of 120 ECTS credits after the license and prepares, according to the chosen course, the student for the profession of school teacher, college and high school teacher, teacher of vocational high school, documentalist teacher, principal adviser for education and training professions. The courses are offered on the three academic sites Limoges, Guéret and Tulle for the First degree.